VERSAILLES, Auguſt 14.

THE king filled the vacant places in the miniſtry on the 4th inſtant. His majeſty informed the national aſſembly of his choice by a letter, which forms one of the moſt precious monuments in the annals of monarchy. For the purpoſe of producing ſtill greater unanimity in every department of adminiſtration, and to prevent the influence of favour or predilections, the king has ordered that henceforth all nominations to offices, employments or church benefices, magiſtracy, foreign affairs, war, marine, finance, and the king's houſhold, ſhall be decided in open council. It was the king's intention to nominate M. Neckar chief miniſter; but M. Neckar receiving that proof of his majeſty's confidence with reſpectful gratitude, begged that he would neither beſtow upon him rank or title. This miniſter having demanded of the king to be relieved of a great part of the finance department, his majeſty has re-eſtabliſhed the office of comptrollor-general, and given it in charge to M. Lambert, whoſe application and integrity are already well known. He will unite his labours with the king's, in preſence of M. Neckar firſt miniſter of the finances, who with the king's permiſſion has reſerved to himſelf the royal treaſury, and the taking of his majeſty's orders for the nomination to places and employments.

LONDON, Auguſt 17.

The king of Spain though he has ſucceeded to the throne, has not yet been formally anointed and crowned as king of that noble country. We are informed by a correſpondent at Liſbon, that the Spaniſh grandees have entered into a combination not to aſſiſt, countenance, or recogniſe the validity of that ceremony, unleſs the king ſhall agree to re-eſtabliſh the cortez, and take the oaths that were made in former times by the ſovereigns of Caſtile and Andaluſia, to their new ſubjects. The truth of this will ſoon appear.

General baron Scaleiffen is arrived in England, charged with an important commiſſion from the king of Pruſſia, in whoſe ſervice that veteran now holds a diſtinguiſhed rank.

The object of his commiſſion is not certainly known; but it is believed in the high political circle, that it comprehends two important and diſtinct things:

To ſolicit the hand of the princeſs royal for the prince of Pruſſia;

And to ſettle the conduct of the two courts on the election of the king of the Romans.

Advices are received from Maeſtricht, that ſince the affair of Tirlemont, the prince biſhop of Liege has aſſembled all his troops to protect his own dominions, and has forbid the diſaffected of any country whatever from taking refuge in his territories, or to make any ſettlement therein.

The eclat of the French revolution has rouſed the Spaniards from a nap of two centuries, and in Seville and other parts of Spain they appear to be conſcious that there was a time when they had no inquiſition, and a time when they had a cortez.

The public are deſired to be cautious of the dollars made in 1783, as ſeveral counterfeits have been ſeen this week, well executed, excepting the date 83, which appears badly done.

PHILADELPHIA, October 22.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman lately returned from the Muſkingum, to his friends in Boſton, dated Morris county, (ſtate of New-Jerſey) October 1.

" Mr. Mattis, a ſurveyor, with his party, were on the 9th of Auguſt attacked by the Indians. His party conſiſted of a corporal, ſix ſoldiers, and five New-Englandmen, who were employed in ſurveying near the Great Kanhawa, about 100 miles down the river from Marietta. Two of the party riſing earlier than the others, went to look after ther pack-horſes—the remainder (11 in number) after having riſen, were ſitting on their blankets, when they received an unexpected fire from a party of Indians, not knowing there were any near them. Seven were ſhot dead on the ſpot: the remaining three, with Mr. Mattis, and the two who were looking for their horſes, made their eſcape; the unfortunate perſons killed were ſix ſoldiers, and a New-Englandman, by the name of Patchan, from near Boſton; Mr. Mattis and the others made their way down the river, where colonel Meigs, with a party, were alſo ſurveying. They found them alarmed, as one of the chain-bearers had diſcovered two dogs ahead in the woods—they immediately diſcharged their guns, and reloaded, which proved a lucky circumſtance, as the Indians, then lying in ambuſh for them to come on, ſuppoſing themſelves diſcovered, went off, firſt drawing with wet powder, on the bark of a tree, the figure of an Indian tomahawking a man. Colonel Meigs and his party immediately quitted their employ, and returned ſafe to Marietta. A party of Chawaneſe Indians afterwards took a New-Englandman, Mr. Gardner, priſoner at Wolf creek; he was employed in cutting timber for a mill now building at that place, 8 miles from Marietta, but being an excellent woodſman, he had the good fortune to make his eſcape, after travelling 60 or 70 miles with them.

" Theſe events have damped the inhabitants a little; but I am in hopes no future miſchief will enſue from the ſavages. A deſcription of that fine country, and the great advantage ariſing from ſettlements there, it is needleſs for me to give. The lands exceed my expectation."

RICHMOND, October 22.

By a gentleman juſt arrived from the back country, we are informed, that a party of volunteers which went in purſuit of ſome Indians that had been very troubleſome to many of the frontier inhabitants of that country, had juſt returned; they fell in with a ſmall party of Indians which were encamped, killed two of them, and put the reſt to flight; they took from their encampment 15 or 20 horſes and a few other articles which they had plundered the inhabitants of.

Laſt week arrived here, five Indians, chiefs of the Chicaſaw nation, who are on their way to New-York.

A REMEDY for RINGWORMS, ITCH, &c.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of the faculty, at Fort St. George, to doctor B. of the Bengal eſtabliſhment —(Extracted from a London news-paper.)

" Sir PAUL JODDRELL, from his ſkill in botany, has made a diſcovery which is likely to prove of the greateſt importance to the health and eaſe of Europeans in India, and will tend to the extirpation of that cruel and moſt tormenting of all maladies, the ringworms; and the remedy is as ſimple as it is efficacious. It conſiſts in nothing more than a frequent embrocation or friction of the parts where the eruption prevails, with common muſhroom-ketchup. This remedy, ſimple as it appears, has never been known to fail in removing the ringworms, itch, or any other cutaneous eruption, after every other noſtrum has failed.

" Sir Paul accounts for the efficacy of this vegetable curative, in the known noxious property of the muſhroom to all animalcula. The ſolution or eſſence of this fungus is proved, by this diſcovery, to bear ſuch enmity to the minute inſect, which is the occult cauſe of this diſorder, that it immediately perforates the cuticle, and totally exterminates the infection. The experiment is eaſy, and a trial is recommended to thoſe afflicted with ringworms, tetters, or eruptions of any kind."
